DURANTE KING-MCLEAN,	:
Defendant.	:

ORDER

AND NOW, this 13th day of May 2024, pursuant to the Due Process
Protections Act, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Court confirms the United States' obligation to produce all exculpatory evidence to the defendant pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and its progeny, and orders it to do so.

2. Under Brady, the prosecutor must produce material evidence in its possession, custody, or control favorable to the accused, which includes both exculpatory evidence and information which may impeach government witnesses when that evidence is material either to guilt or punishment.

3. Failing to produce the material evidence in a timely manner may result in consequences, including, but not limited to, exclusion of evidence, adverse jury instructions, dismissal of charges, contempt proceedings, or sanctions by the Court.
